SHERMAN: SUCCESS COMES EARLY

AL SHERMAN — 2nd YEAR
Brooklyn College — Scarsdale, N. Y.

COACH: Few first-year coaches in the NFL have achieved the success which came to youthful Al Sherman in 1961 when he replaced Jim Lee Howell and promptly took the Giants to the eastern division championship. En route to the title, Sherman's club won 10 games, lost only three and tied one. The Maramen finished near the top in virtually every offensive and defensive category. This performance won Al "Coach of the Year" designation by The Associated Press, United Press International and the N. Y. News. At 39 years of age, Sherman is one of the youngest head coaches in the NFL—and also one of the most capable. Al's career with the Giants spans two periods. He was backfield coach under Steve Owen from 1949 to 1953, and one of his first jobs was the conversion of a rookie named Charlie Conerly from a single wing tailback to a T-formation quarterback. When Owen left in 1954 and Howell took over, Sherman moved to the Canadian League as head coach at Winnipeg (1954-55-56) and made the title playoffs three straight years. He returned to the NFL as a personnel scout for the Giants in 1957, and served in that capacity until replacing Vinnie Lombardi as offense coach in 1959. When Howell retired after 1960, the Giants didn't have to look far for his successor. Sherman coached in the Senior Bowl five times (1951-52-53-59-60) and in 1961 he headed the Eastern eleven in the Pro Bowl classic. Prior to entering the pro ranks, Al coached at St. Joseph's Prep in Philadelphia (1946-47), and later helped install the T at Gettysburg College (1953). In 1948, as player-coach, he led the Paterson (N.J.) Panthers to the American Association title.

PRO: Sherman was drafted by the Philadelphia Eagles in the war year of 1943, and played with Greasy Neale's club for five seasons, until 1947. Al was never more than a second-string quarterback behind Roy Zimmerman, but coach Neale credited the little lefthander with having "one of the sharpest football minds in the business." Sherman was originally brought to Philadelphia to help install the T formation.

SCHOOL: Attended Boys' High in New York City (1935-38) and then played four years of football under Lou Oshins at Brooklyn College. Biggest thrill came the day underdog Brooklyn rallied to whip City College, 28-21. Al passed for two touchdowns and scored the other two. In 1942, Sherman's junior year, Oshins installed the then-new T formation and put Al at quarterback. The lefthanded kid was so adept at running the Brooklyn T that Philadelphia pro scouts immediately grabbed him to operate the Eagles' T.

PERSONAL: Sherman was born on February 10, 1923. He has one sister, Miriam. Majored in psychology and economics at Brooklyn College and was graduated Cum Laude in 1942. He and his pretty wife Joan have three children, Randy, Lori and Robin. "Randy is interested in sports," smiles Al, "but somehow he always wants to be the coach instead of a player." Sherman has no particular hobby outside of looking at football films after the rest of the clan has retired for the night. "I never get tired of football," he admits. In the off-season, Al represents the Cellu-Craft Products Co., and also has interests in the insurance field.

GIANTS' ASSISTANT COACHES

LINE COACH

ED KOLMAN — 10th YEAR
Temple; Bears; Giants — New Hyde Park, L. I.

COACH: Giants' line coach from 1950-1956. Returned to the Maramen in 1960 after three years in private business. As line coach in the early '50s, Ed played a big part in the development of such all-pro stars as Rosey Brown, Ray Wietecha, Jack Stroud and Roosevelt Grier.

PRO: One of three great tackles, with Lee Artoe and Joe Stydahar, on fabulous Chicago Bears juggernaut of 1940-42. Played in three consecutive world championship games—as a reserve in Bears' ineffable 73-0 win over Redskins in 1940, and as a regular in 37-9 win over Giants in 1941 and in 14-6 loss to Redskins in 1942. Returned to Chicago after military service in 1946 and played in 24-14 world title victory over Giants at Polo Grounds in 1946. After laying off with injury in 1948, Ed completed playing career with New York in 1949.

SCHOOL: Played football at Stuyvesant and Boys' High in New York and was All-Met at latter. Played varsity ball at Temple U. from 1937-1939, and twice won All-American honors.

PERSONAL: Born October 21, 1917, in Greenpoint, Brooklyn. He and wife Adele have two children, Edwina and Richard. Ed is music lover who plays violin; he had own band in college. Has off-season job with Austin Nichols company in New York area. Served as Navy lieutenant for three and a half years in World War II, and won Bronze Star.

END COACH

KEN KAVANAUGH — 8th YEAR
LSU, Chicago Bears — Philadelphia, Pa.

COACH: Joined the Giants in 1955 to serve as end coach. Works with coach Al Sherman on end play and pass patterns. Was assistant coach at Villanova in 1954.

PRO: One of the most famous ends in NFL history as a member of the great Chicago Bear teams of the pre-war era. Played on the championship Bear elevens of 1940, 1941 and 1946. Second high scorer in Chicago history with 330 points and top Bear touchdown-maker with 55. A member of the Bears' Hall of Fame. His remarkable receiving record shows one TD for every three passes caught.

SCHOOL: All-American end at LSU from 1936-1940. Also starred on the LSU baseball team, and made good as a minor leaguer before joining the Bears.

PERSONAL: Born November 23, 1916, at Little Rock, Ark. Operates ranch

in California, and runs lumber business in Philadelphia. Married, with two children. Served with Air Force in World War II as pilot. Rose to rank of captain; flew 30 missions; earned Air Medal and the Distinguished Flying Cross.

BACKFIELD COACH

KYLE ROTE — 1st YEAR
S.M.U.; Giants — Scarsdale, N. Y.

COACH: Kyle retired as an active player prior to the start of the 1962 campaign, which would have been his 12th N.F.L. season, and immediately was named by head coach Al Sherman to the post of offensive backfield coach. Rote brings wonderful credentials to the Giants' coaching staff—a long and brilliant career as a player, both at halfback and end; a keen understanding of all aspects of the game, and the respect of all who have played with him and against him over the years.

PRO: Bonus choice of the Giants in 1951 draft. Ranks first in all-time Giant pass receiving with 301 catches. Showed great potential as a running back in his early days, but a serious knee injury necessitated his switch from halfback to end. Was regarded as one of the greatest open-field feinters in the business. Gained 4,808 yards on pass receptions during his 11-year career, a club record.

SCHOOL: Unanimous All-American selection at S. M. U. in 1950. Awarded the Sportsmanship Trophy of Southwest Conference, among numerous other honors. Was generally acknowledged as greatest college back of his time. Playing in the Mustangs' double-wing, Kyle ran, passed and received. His one-man gang tactics nearly succeeded in upending mighty Notre Dame's four-year unbeaten record in 1949.

PERSONAL: Born October 27, 1927. Lives in Scarsdale, N. Y., with wife and three sons. Has year-round job as sports director of New York radio station WNEW. Great all-around athlete. Had successful fling at minor league baseball. Shoots par golf. Fine swimmer and tennis player.

DEFENSIVE PLAYER-COACH

ANDY ROBUSTELLI — 1st YEAR
Arnold College — Stamford, Conn.

Although he remains a fixture at his defensive right end position, Andy Robustelli has taken on new and increased responsibilities this season as player-coach with the Giants' defensive platoon. Working under head coach Al Sherman, the veteran Robustelli has charge of the defensive line and linebackers, and also has a hand in the plotting of overall defensive game strategy. Now 35 years old, Andy is well qualified to assume his new duties. He is a seasoned and experienced defensive specialist with a dozen years to his credit in professional football. He starred for two Los Angeles Rams championship teams from 1951 until 1956, and has since been the defensive leader of the Maramen. It is more than mere coincidence that the Giants have won four eastern titles since Robustelli arrived on the scene to bolster the defense in 1956. Andy is primarily a defensive man, but he possesses a sound background in all phases of football. (For more on Andy Robustelli, see Page 36.)

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE PLAYER-COACH

JIMMY PATTON — 1st YEAR
U. of Mississippi — Belzoni, Miss.

As chief lieutenant to defensive player-coach Andy Robustelli, all-pro Jimmy Patton runs the Giants' pass defense secondary. Specifically, Patton is charged with drilling the halfbacks and safetymen in the defenses devised by head coach Al Sherman and Robustelli. Anti-pass warfare has been Patton's speciality ever since he left the U. of Mississippi campus in 1955 to join the Giants. Jim was a great offensive player at Ole Miss but, outside of running back punts and kickoffs earlier in his pro career, the Maramen have used him exclusively as a safetyman. And the 29-year-old ballhawk has few peers at that position. In 1958 he led the league in pass interceptions with nine, and in 1961 he tied for second behind New York's Dick Lynch with eight. Jim's "book" on outstanding receivers in the N.F.L. is exhaustive, and is a valuable guide to other Giant defensive backs. (For more on Jim Patton, see Page 31.)

KICKING COACH

KEN STRONG — Bayside, L. I.

Ken Strong, one of the truly great names in New York City football history, returns to the Giants this year as a member of Al Sherman's coaching staff. A former New York University All-American and later a pro star with the Giants, Strong, now 56, will serve as a special kicking coach for the Maramen. He will work with both punters and placekickers. Ken is indeed well qualified for the job. In an eight-year career with the Giants (1933-35, 1939 and 1944-47) he established himself as one of the game's greatest kickers. He also was a fine halfback, a good runner and blocker, but kicking the football was easily his forte. His punting average over the years was always near 45 yards; he booted 147 extra points, 67 in a row over one span; he kicked 36 field goals, and his talented toe was instrumental in piling up a career total of 351 points, second only to Frank Gifford's 370 in all-time Giant scoring. In 1934, Ken personally accounted for 72 points, quite a feat in an era of low scoring defensive games. Strong starred in baseball and football at N.Y.U. from 1926-28, winning All-American grid honors in his senior year when he led the nation's collegiate scorers with 162 points. After graduating, he joined the professional Staten Island Stapletons but in 1933 Tim Mara persuaded him to sign with the Giants. For the next three seasons he was a bulwark of Steve Owen's great clubs, and was a standout performer in the memorable "sneaker game" of 1934 against the Bears. After that, Ken's career led him to the N. Y. Yankees and the Jersey City Giants. He returned to the Maramen in 1939 but a broken back put him on the sidelines. In the war years, the Giants re-hired Strong as a kicking specialist, and he played from 1944 through 1947. Still trim and vigorous, Ken now lives with his family in Bayside, L. I. He works for the Mason-Burrows Wholesale Liquor House and is active in the affairs of the Touchdown Club of New York. Ken is a member of not one—but three—Hall of Fames, the Helms Foundation college and professional Halls of Fame and the National Football Hall of Fame.

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

JIM LEE HOWELL — Englewood, N. J.

In a quarter of a century with the Football Giants, towering, affable and efficient Jim Lee Howell has filled a variety of posts—player, assistant coach, head coach and now director of player personnel. Jim Lee joined the Giants in 1937 after a brilliant athletic career at the U. of Arkansas (he was a member of the U.S. Olympic basketball team) and was among the fine crop of rookies who led the Maramen to the world title in 1938 and eastern crowns in 1939 and 1941. He was a regular two-way Giant end for a total of nine years, 1937-42 and 1946-48, his career being interrupted for a wartime hitch with the Marines in the South Pacific. Upon the completion of his playing days, Howell served as end coach under Steve Owen from 1949-53. During the same period, he was head coach at Wagner College. He moved into the No. 1 job when Owen departed in 1953. Over a seven-year period with Howell as head coach, New York won three divisional titles (1956-58-59) and one world championship (1956). Three of Howell's assistants are now head coaches in their own right—Al Sherman (Giants), Tom Landry (Dallas) and Vin Lombardi (Green Bay). When Jim Lee retired from the coaching lines after the 1960 campaign, he immediately was named director of player personnel for the Giants. In his new job, he supervises the club's far-flung and ever-expanding recruiting system, works in close liaison with the scouts and correlates the voluminous material compiled on college players from every section of the land. Thanks to his years in the game and a wealth of experience, Jim Lee is ideally suited for such a position. Howell still owns a large farm in his hometown of Lonoke, Ark., but spends most of his time in Englewood, N. J., with his wife Sue and their three children, Tim, Mark, and Susan.

PLAYER SKETCHES

ERICH BARNES — Halfback — 5th Year
Purdue University — 27 198 6-3 — Chicago, Ill.

PRO: Barnes was drafted No. 4 by the Chicago Bears in 1958, and came to the Giants at the start of the 1961 season as part of a three-team deal that sent Giant defensive star Lindon Crow to Los Angeles and Ram quarterback Bill Wade to Chicago. In three years with the Bears Erich intercepted only nine passes for 157 yards—but in his first season as a Giant, the big guy intercepted seven aerials and ran them back 195 yards. One, of course, was the record-tying 102-yard interception jaunt against the Dallas Cowboys in the Cotton Bowl. Barnes is an ideal corner back—big, fast, rugged and a vicious tackler.

SCHOOL: Barnes was a standout all-around performer at Purdue University. Lettered two seasons as a halfback and then played another year as an end. He also was a star quarter-miler on the Boilermaker track team.

PERSONAL: Born on July 4, 1935, in Elkhardt, Ind. Single. Erich says his biggest thrill as a pro, outside of his 102-yard interception return against Dallas, was the day Coach Al Sherman put him in for one offensive play against the Philadelphia Eagles and he caught a 62-yard scoring pass from Y. A. Tittle in what has since become known as the "Pete Previte Special." (Pete Previte is the Yankee Stadium lockerroom man who suggested the play to coach Al Sherman.)

BOB BILL — Guard-Tackle — Rookie
Notre Dame — 23 240 6-2 — Garden City, L. I.

PRO: Bill was the Giants' No. 2 draft choice in 1962. Big, fast and rugged, Bob is given a good chance of making the grade either as a guard or at tackle.

SCHOOL: Regular left tackle for the Fighting Irish from 1959-61. Received honorable mention on several "All" teams and was selected to play in the annual College All-Star game in Chicago.

PERSONAL: Born on March 29, 1940, in Garden City, L. I., which is still his hometown. Bob is married to the former Ann Killian. He comes from a real football family. Brother Joe Jr. played at Notre Dame in 1955-56 and brother Mike was a center at Syracuse from 1956-58. Bob majored in business management at Notre Dame and hopes to someday join brother Mike in the insurance business. Holds a second lieutenant's commission in the ROTC.

DAVE BISHOP — Linebacker — Rookie
U. of Connecticut — 24 215 6-1 — Chicopee, Mass.

PRO: Signed as a free agent on the advice of scouts who were impressed with his determined and consistent play as a middle linebacker for the University of Connecticut. Probably will be tried as a corner linebacker by the Giants.

SCHOOL: Played only two years of varsity football at the U. of Connecticut but made the All-Yankee Conference team both years.

PERSONAL: Born on April 26, 1938, in Springfield, Mass. Married to the former Claire A. Cannon and they have a daughter, Maureen, age two. Majored in business administration but is undecided as to future plans. Irish descent. Played offensive halfback at West Springfield (Mass.) High School.

REED BOHOVICH — Guard-Tackle — Rookie
Lehigh U. — 21 260 6-3 — Buffalo, N. Y.

PRO: Bohovich was the Giants' No. 9 draft selection in 1962. He is big and fast, and could make the grade at guard or tackle.

SCHOOL: Played regular offensive and defensive tackle for three years at Lehigh University. Won All-Atlantic Coast Conference first team honors in 1960, and made the all-conference second team the following year. Once intercepted a deflected pitchout against Harvard and galloped 65 yards for a touchdown.

PERSONAL: Born on November 28, 1941, in Buffalo, N. Y. Real name is George Reed Bohovich, but he prefers Reed or just plain "Bo." Single. Majored in metallurgy in college and hopes for a career in that field.

TREVA (BOOKIE) BOLIN — Guard — Rookie
U. of Mississippi — 22 235 6-2 — Okolona, Miss.

PRO: Bolin was drafted on the fifth round as a "future" for 1963 but was signed by the Giants when he was ruled ineligible for further collegiate play by the NCAA. Regarded as one of the top pro line prospects in the South.

SCHOOL: Regular guard for Ole Miss in sophomore and junior seasons. Won three varsity letters, two in football, and played in the 1961 Sugar Bowl and the 1962 Cotton Bowl.

PERSONAL: Born on June 17, 1940, in Hamilton, Ala. Single. Top student at Ole Miss and was named to the Scholastic All-American team and the Southeastern Conference All-Scholastic squad. Hopes to pursue a career in coaching when his pro playing days are over. His hobbies include hunting and fishing.

ROOSEVELT BROWN — Tackle — 10th Year
Morgan State — 30 260 6-3 — Teaneck, N. J.

PRO: Drafted No. 27 in 1953 in what is generally regarded as one of the greatest "sleeper" picks of all time. Has been named to the Pro Bowl game for past seven years in a row, and is a perennial All Pro selection at tackle. In 1956, when Giants won the world title, Rosey was named Lineman of the Year by the Associated Press. Ranks with top offensive tackles in league history. Big, fast and agile. Fine downfield blocker. Is valuable member of Giants' kickoff teams, and usually makes the tackle. Also used to reinforce defensive forward wall on goal-line stands.

SCHOOL: Two-time member of Negro All-American eleven. Co-captained the Morgan State team for two years. Played in Polo Grounds against Wilberforce in the Negro grid classic. Won four major letters in football, two in wrestling and one in baseball. Two-time captain of the Morgan State mat squad. Won several heavyweight titles during collegiate career.

PERSONAL: Born on October 20, 1932. Married and lives in Teaneck, N. J., where wife teaches school. Is employed, along with Alex Webster, on the sales force of the P. Ballantine and Sons Company in New Jersey area. Rosey was born in Charlottesville, Va., and attended Jefferson High School there. Went out for football because, "My high school coach thought I was too big to be playing trombone in the school band." Rosey's boyhood grid idol was Marion Motley, famed Cleveland Brown's fullback.

KEN BYERS | Guard | Rookie
U. of Cincinnati | 22 240 6-1 | Cincinnati, O.

PRO: Drafted No. 7 by the Giants after impressing scouts with his size, speed and agility. Was signed by Jim Lee Howell, director of personnel for the Giants.

SCHOOL: Co-captain of the U. of Cincinnati eleven in 1961, winning All-American honorable mention. Was named to the All-Missouri Valley Conference team in 1960 and 1961, and was twice voted conference Lineman of the Week last season. Averaged 48 minutes a game for the Bearcats. Against Marquette in 1960, Ken recovered two fumbles, knocked down five passes and made a dozen unassisted tackles.

PERSONAL: Byers was born on April 6, 1940, in Logan, O. He is married to the former Eileen Schneider, and they have a small daughter, Juli Ann, 2. Ken majored in English at Cincinnati and hopes someday to become a lawyer. His hobby is water skiing.

DON CHANDLER | Punter | 7th Year
Florida University | 27 205 6-2 | Tulsa, Okla.

PRO: Chandler was the Giants' fifth draft choice in 1956, after finishing a brilliant career at Florida, and was a vital cog in the Maramen's title drive that season. Led the NFL in punting in 1957 with a 44.6 average for 60 punts. He finished second in 1958 with a 44.0 mark and was a close runnerup to Yale Lary in 1959 with an average of 46.6 for 55 tries. He has averaged almost 45 yards for every punt over the past six campaigns. During the 1961 pre-season schedule, Don booted a ball 107 yards against the Dallas Cowboys in Albuquerque, N. M. Also has a 90-yard pre-season punt against the Bears to his credit.

SCHOOL: Don led the nation's collegiate punters in 1955 while at Florida. He won major letters in football, basketball, baseball and track. He was an All-Southern Conference selection three times (1952-53-55) and saw duty at three positions—end, halfback and fullback. Played in the Junior Rose Bowl and the College All-Star game. Won conference high jump title with leap of 6-4. Prior to attending Florida, Don spent a year at Bacone Indian College in Muskogee, Okla.

PERSONAL: Born on September 5, 1934. Nicknamed "Babe." Married childhood sweetheart, former Pat Daniels, and they have three children, Kelle, Brett and Caron. Don owns modest ranch in Tulsa, where he pursues his favorite hobbies: cattle, horses, fishing and golf. Don's father, Ben, and his brother, Dan, were top athletes in their day around Oklahoma. Chandler is of Scotch-Irish-Indian descent. Was honor student in college, earning B.S. degree in physical education.

WILLIE CLARINGTON | Guard-Tackle | Rookie
Florida A&M | 24 245 6-2 | Ft. Valley, Ga.

PRO: Giants signed Clarington as a free agent on the advice of scout Peahead Walker, who thinks the big boy has the size and speed to make it in the pro ranks.

SCHOOL: Willie captained the Florida A&M team in his senior year and was a three-time selection on the All-Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference eleven. He also helped coach the Florida A&M line.

PERSONAL: Born on November 2, 1938, in Ft. Valley, Ga., where the Clarington clan still lives. Single. Attended Mays High School in Goulds, Fla. His boyhood idol was Jim Parker, Baltimore Colt tackle. Hopes to become a teacher.

JIM COLLIER | End | Rookie
U. of Arkansas | 23 195 6-2 | Van Buren, Ark.

PRO: Collier was selected by the Giants on the seventh round of the 1960 NFL player draft as a "future" choice. Has the credentials to become a top-notch pro end—size, speed and good hands.

SCHOOL: Jim's pass-catching talents at Arkansas earned him All-American honorable mention, and also landed him on the All-Southwest Conference team two years in a row. He played in the Gator, Cotton and Sugar Bowls and starred in the U.S. Bowl, catching seven passes for 112 yards. Jim won major letters in basketball and track in addition to football. As a track man, he specialized in the pole vault.

PERSONAL: Born on May 8, 1939, in Van Buren, Ark. Married to the former Judith White and they have a small daughter, Jill Elizabeth. Jim starred at Van Buren High School as a quarterback but was switched to end at Arkansas. His hobbies include hunting and fishing. German descent.

JOHNNY COUNTS — Halfback — Rookie

Illinois — 23 170 5-10 — New Rochelle, N. Y.

PRO: Counts was signed as a free agent by the Giants, who had followed his career closely since his schoolboy days in New Rochelle, N. Y.

SCHOOL: Played offensive halfback for the University of Illinois in 1958 and 1959 and was named "Sophomore of the Year" in the Big Ten. Earned major letters in football and track.

PERSONAL: Born on February 28, 1939, in Mt. Pleasant, N. Y. Single. Attended New Rochelle High School, where he was a great football player and track star. Ran the hundred in 9.8 and the 220 in 21.1 as a schoolboy. His hobby is collecting rock 'n' roll records.

DARRELL DESS — Guard — 5th Year

N. Carolina State — 27 235 6-0 — New Castle, Pa.

PRO: Originally drafted No. 11 by Washington Redskins, who traded him to the Pittsburgh Steelers at the start of 1958 season. Was regular offensive guard for Steelers before being acquired by Giants in 1959 in a trade for fullback C. R. Roberts. Mainstay of Giants' offensive guard corps.

SCHOOL: Won three varsity football letters at North Carolina State. Was All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection in senior year. Starred in 1957 Blue-Gray game. Won letter in wrestling, too.

PERSONAL: Born July 11, 1935. Plans on teaching school when grid days are over. Is substitute teacher in off-season. Was wrestling star at Union Township H.S. in New Castle, Pa.

BOB GAITERS — Halfback — 2nd Year

New Mexico State — 24 210 5-11 — Teaneck, N. J.

PRO: Gaiters was the first player selected by the Giants in the 1960 draft. New York made a last-minute deal with Washington and picked Gaiters on the Redskins' turn at the start of the second round. In return, Washington got the rights to Kansas center Fred Hageman. Gaiters was nothing short of sensational in his rookie season. He was the club's second leading ground-gainer (behind Alex Webster) with 467 yards on 116 carries for a 4.0 average. He caught 11 passes for 54 yards. He tied for third in scoring with seven touchdowns, led the Giants in kickoff returns with 11 for 292 yards, and completed three of three passes, two of them for touchdowns! Received award as Giant "Rookie of the Year."

SCHOOL: Attended Santa Ana Junior College and then moved on to fame as a tailback at New Mexico State University. Received All-American honors in 1960 when he led the nation's major college backs in scoring (145 points) and rushing (1,338 yards and a 6.7 average). Was two-time Junior College All-American at Santa Ana, and starred in the Sun Bowl and New Mexico Orange Bowl. Bob enjoyed the top game of his career against Tulsa when he rushed for 196 yards and scored four TDs. Captained the New Mexico State track team; ran sprints and hurdles, and was timed in 9.7 for the hundred.

PERSONAL: Born on February 26, 1938, in Zanesville, O., and attended Zanesville High School where he won letters in three sports. Hopes to become a coach after pro grid days are over. Married to the former Tonya Young and they have a daughter, Colette. Gaiters formerly made his home in Santa Ana, Calif., but has now become a resident of Teaneck, N. J. His hobby is listening to jazz music.

FRANK GIFFORD — Halfback-End — 10th Year

Southern California — 32 196 6-1 — Bakersfield, Calif.

PRO. Frank Gifford returns to professional football, his first love, this season after a one-year "retirement." He quit after the 1960 season to take a year-round job as a CBS sportscaster, but he was never very far from the Giant scene. He served as head scout for coach Al Sherman during the 1961 campaign, and then decided to abandon radio for a return to the gridiron. Gifford was drafted No. 1 by New York in 1952. He has been one of the most versatile backs in NFL history, and also one of the finest. In 1956, Frank was third in receiving and fifth in rushing, the first player ever to finish so high in both categories the same year. He repeated in the top ten in 1957 with a fourth in receiving and a 10th in ball-carrying. Was named the league's MVP in 1956. Made the Pro Bowl for six straight seasons. Was named to the Pro Bowl as a defensive back in 1953 and as an offensive back the following year—another first in NFL annals. A real triple-threater in his halfback heyday, Gifford threw 14 touchdown passes in 60 attempts on the pass-run option. One of the few stars in league history to play full 60 minutes, offense and defense, which he did for half the 1953 season. Frank holds three Giant career records—scoring (370 points), rushing (3,674 yards) and most touchdowns (59). He also holds the club record for most pass receptions in one game (11).

SCHOOL: Genuine iron-man triple-threat player in the age of specialization at USC. As a senior, Frank rushed for 841 yards, completed 32 of 61 passes, scored seven TDs and kicked 26 extra points and two field goals for 74 points. Of 111 passes in three years, only three were intercepted. Also was accurate punter and top-flight pass receiver. Played both single-wing tailback and T-formation quarterback. Co-captained the East team against the West, and North against South—and played 60 minutes in both games! Was named to the American Football Coaches' All-American team in 1952. Turned down fantastic bid from Canadian League to sign with Giants. Prior to USC, Frank was an all-state player at Bakersfield High and made the Junior College All-American team while playing for Bakersfield, J. C.

PERSONAL: Born on August 16, 1930. Married the former Maxine Ewart, who was a campus queen at Southern Cal. They have three children—Jeff, 9; Kyle, 6, and Vicki, 4. Kyle is named for Kyle Rote, a longtime teammate of Frank's with the Giants. Frank's off-season activities include radio and TV work and commercial TV modeling. He also has appeared in numerous Hollywood films. Frank shoots golf in the mid-80s and is an excellent swimmer.

ROOSEVELT GRIER

Penn State — Tackle — 30 290 6-5 — 7th Year — Linden, N. J.

PRO: No. 3 draft selection in 1955. Was sensation on defense as a rookie that year, and was a vital cog in the Giants' 1956 championship drive. Very fast and agile for a big man. Spent 1957 season in the Army but returned in time to help club to eastern division crown in 1958, 1959 and 1961.

SCHOOL: Won All-American honorable mention as lineman at Penn State. Also starred in track as a shot-putter. Held the NCAA shot-put title at around 58 feet.

PERSONAL: Born July 14, 1932. Married. Plans on a career in the entertainment world. Already has cut several vocal discs that proved to be popular hits. Plays piano and guitar but prefers singing.

LEE GROSSCUP

U. of Utah — Quarterback — 25 185 6-1 — 3rd Year — Flushing, N. Y.

PRO: Lee was the Giants' No. 1 draft choice in 1959. He was the final player cut from the squad that year and spent the rest of the campaign on the inactive squad. As a reserve quarterback behind George Shaw and Charlie Conerly in 1960, and Conerly and Y. A. Tittle in 1961, Lee saw only limited action. His league passing record shows 16 completions in 47 attempts for 231 yards and two touchdowns.

SCHOOL: Started college career at U. of Washington but switched to Santa Monica J. C., and then to Utah. Won All-American honors at Utah in 1957-58 and also was Junior College All-American at Santa Monica. Has won numerous all-state, all-conference and all-sectional awards. Highlight of career was Army game of 1957 when he completed 20 passes for 316 yards and two TDs as Utes lost, 39-33. Played in Shrine-Hi All-Star game (1956), Alfalfa Bowl (Junior College) in 1956 and the East-West Shrine game and Senior Bowl, both in 1958. Star pole vaulter for Utah track team and captain of varsity volleyball squad.

PERSONAL: Born December 27, 1936, in Santa Monica. Married to former Susan Carol Hancock. Two children, Kim and Stephanee. Spent off-season working for public relations firm in New York. Writes weekly sports column for paper in hometown of Santa Monica, Calif. Also likes to read poetry and listen to classical music. Is affiliated with Spalding football division.

RALPH GUGLIELMI

Notre Dame — Quarterback — 28 195 6-1 — 6th Year — Washington, D.C.

PRO: Guglielmi was the No. 1 pick of Washington in 1955 and played with the Redskins, mostly behind Eddie LeBaron, for four years. In 1961 he was shipped to the St. Louis Cardinals in an even-up trade for quarterback George Izo. The Gaints acquired Ralph from the Cardinals prior to the 1962 season in a deal which gave St. Louis rookie Bill Triplett and a future draft choice. In five years as a part-time quarterback, Guglielmi has completed 271 of 571 passes for 3,791 yards and 22 touchdowns.

SCHOOL: A unanimous All-American quarterback at Notre Dame, Ralph set all-time Irish records for most passing yardage (3,073), most attempts (435) and most completions (208). He also led Notre Dame on defense in 1953-54 with ten interceptions. Won four letters and played in the 1955 East-West Shrine game and the 1955 All-Star game. Was awarded the Walter Camp Memorial Trophy as the nation's top back in 1954.

RALPH GUGLIELMI (Continued)

PERSONAL: Ralph was born on June 26, 1934, in Columbus, O. He is married to the former Shirley Moran. Attended Grand View Heights (O.) High School, where he was an all-around star in three sports. Receiver BA in sociology from Notre Dame and then served two years as an Air Force Lieutnant, 1956-58. Led the Bolling Field AF football team to two all-service titles. Plays golf in the high 70s. In the off-season he serves as a vice-president of the McLaughlin Insurance Co.

TOM HAGGERTY — Halfback — Rookie

Columbia University — 22 190 6-0 — Worcester, Mass.

PRO: Signed as a free agent. He and teammate Russ Warren are the first Columbia products signed by the Giants since Bill Swiacki and Bruce Gehrke in the late 1940s.

SCHOOL: Tom was one of the outstanding halfbacks in Columbia history. He made the All-Ivy and All-East teams and finished his career with a total of 1,208 yards rushing, a figure topped by only one other Lion player, Lou Kusserow. Haggerty won the Ivy League rushing title in 1961 with 557 yards on 101 carries, better than five yards a clip, and also set a league scoring record with 62 points. His Columbia records include 32 carries against Dartmouth, 148 yards rushing against Cornell, an 86-yard punt return and 119 yards on punt runbacks.

PERSONAL: Born on November 21, 1939, in Worcester, Mass. Single. Majored in engineering at Columbia. Hobbies include skiing, water skiing and hunting. Played halfback and fullback at South High in Worcester, Mass.

PETE HALL — Quarterback — 2nd Year

Marquette U. — 24 200 6-2 — Wheatland, Pa.

PRO: Hall was drafted No. 12 by the Giants in 1960 after impressing pro scouts with his fine passing exploits at Marquette. Spent the 1960 season on the club's inactive list and then was converted to offensive end in 1961. Has great hands and is a top feinter in the open field, caught two passes in 1961 but was used only briefly. Could be used as a combination end and quarterback if the situation arises.

SCHOOL: Regular quarterback for Marquette. Was third in total offense in NCAA major college ranks in 1959 with 1,555 yards on 330 plays. Aslo finished third in NCAA passing with 120 completions in 237 attempts for 1,589 yards and seven touchdowns. Was named to Catholic All-American team, and received honorable mention on regular All-Amercan eleven. Starred in North-South Shrine game. Was all-state basketball player in high school.

PERSONAL: Born on February 28, 1939. Pete, still a bachelor, spends the off-season gaining credits for admission to medical school. He holds a B.S. degree in philosophy. Also does part-time work as a playground director. His hobbies are driving and playing tennis.

LARRY HAYES — Linebacker — 2nd Year

Vanderbilt Univ. — 26 230 6-3 — Nashville, Tenn.

PRO: Signed as free agent on the recommendation of another former Vanderbilt star, Giant halfback Phil King. Won reserve job as a rookie behind middle linebacker Sam Huff. Also valuable member of kickoff and punt teams.

SCHOOL: Played guard and center on offense and linebacker on defense for Vanderbilt. Starred in the 1955 Gator Bowl game. Once made 80% of the tackles as Vanderbilt defeated Tennessee, 26-0. Won letters in track.

PERSONAL: Born on July 21, 1935. Married to former Ann Glenn. Spent six months as Pfc in the Army. Plans to open a drive-in restaurant.

JERRY HILLEBRAND — End — Rookie

Colorado U. — 22 240 6-3 — Davenport, Ia.

PRO: Hillebrand was the Giants' No. 1 draft pick in 1962. Scouts rate him as excellent pro prospect. He has the size and speed to play the tight end position, and also is a talented pass receiver.

SCHOOL: Jerry was a unanimous All-American at the University of Colorado in 1961. He also earned all-conference and all-state honors in football and basketball. Holds the Colorado school record of most yards gained on pass receptions in one game—137. Also kicked a record 54-yard field goal. Played in both the Orange Bowl and the Hula Bowl games after 1961 season.

PERSONAL: Born on March 28, 1940, in Davenport, Ia. Single. Spent six months in U.S. Marine Corps prior to reporting to Giant training camp. Majored in physical education but is undecided as to what he wants to be in the future.

SAM HUFF

West Virginia	Linebacker	7th Year
	27 230 6-1	Flushing, N. Y.

PRO: Drafted third by the Giants in 1956 and became immediate star as middle linebacker on crack defensive platoon. Now regarded as one of the top defensive specialists in the game today. Unanimous All-Pro selection for past four years. Named Outstanding Lineman in the NFL in 1959. A natural diagnostician with great speed and tackling ability. Has won recognition for his great individual efforts against such top runners as Jimmy Brown of Cleveland, Rick Casares of the Bears and Alan Ameche of Baltimore. Was voted MVP on defense in 1961 Pro Bowl.

SCHOOL: Captained West Virginia varsity as two-way guard. Unanimous All-American selection in 1955. Also named to Scholastic All-American eleven. Played in North-South game, Senior Bowl and College All-Star game. Won letters in baseball as hard-hitting catcher.

PERSONAL: Born October 4, 1934. Real name is Robert Lee Huff. He and wife Mary have three children, Sammy Lee, Jr., 9; Kathy, 5, and Joe D., 2½. Sam owns small farm in Fairmont, West Va., but spends most of his time doing sales promotion work for the J. P. Stevens Fabrics Company and making personal appearances around the country.

CHARLIE JANERETTE

Penn State	Guard	3rd Year
	23 255 6-3	Philadelphia, Pa.

PRO: Drafted on the fifth round in 1960 by the Los Angeles Rams. Made the club as a rookie but saw little service. Was sent to the new Minnesota Vikings franchise after 1960 campaign. Giants got him from Vikings in straight player trade involving tackle Ed Mazurek. Shared offensive tackle job with Greg Larson in 1961. Good blocker and has wide range.

SCHOOL: Lettered four years as a tackle at Penn State, ranging in weight from 225 to 245. Named to Sporting News All-American second team and UPI All-East. Also won honorable mention on AP and UPI All-American elevens. Played in Copper Bowl, All-American Bowl and the 1960 College All-Star game.

PERSONAL: Born on December 1, 1938, in Philadelphia. Has four sisters whose names are Faith, Hope, Charity and Carol. Science major at Penn State. Hobby is music. Played fullback at Germantown High and also starred in track and basketball. Does probation work in off-season.

GENE JOHNSON

U. of Cincinnati	Halfback	4th Year
	27 195 6-0	Cincinnati, O.

PRO: Johnson was the ninth draft selection of the Philadelphia Eagles in 1959. He spent two years with the Eagles as a defensive back and, in 1961, was sent to the new Minnesota Vikings franchise. The Vikings, in turn, traded him to the Giants for a future draft pick. Johnson was used mainly as a reserve by both the Eagles and Vikings. He intercepted one pass with Philadelphia in 1959 and three in 1960. He is primarily a safetyman but also can play the tough corner spot.

SCHOOL: Gene was a three-year letterman at end and halfback for the University of Cincinnati, where one of his teammates was Giant halfback Joe Morrison. Johnson was honorable mention all-Ohio and made the all-Missouri Valley Conference second team. His biggest college day was against Miami of Ohio when he caught 10 passes, three of them for touchdowns. He played in the North-South game and captained his squad.

PERSONAL: Gene was born on September 18, 1935, in Clay, W. Va He is married and his wife's name is Yvonne. Johnson holds a degree in Business Education from Cincinnati but his off-season occupation is as an insurance salesman. Nicknamed "Gino," he likes to play the harmonica and also is a golfing nut. Gene spent six months in the Army Engineers Corps as a Pfc. He is a 1954 graduate of Charleston High School, where he won letters in basketball, football and track.

JIM KATCAVAGE

End			7th Year
U. of Dayton	27 240 6-3		Philadelphia, Pa.

PRO: Jim was drafted No. 4 in 1956, joining the Giants at the same time as such other top rookie picks as Sam Huff and Don Chandler. He immediately won a starting berth at defensive end and was a big factor in the Giants' 1956 world championship. "Kat" can play either defensive end or tackle but coach Al Sherman prefers him at end, where he wan All-Pro honors in the 1961 AP and UPI polls. Jim used to be called "one of the most under-rated players" on the defense but now he ranks with the NFL's top defensive ends.

SCHOOLS: Katcavage co-captained the Dayton eleven. He played end on both offense and defense, but the latter was his speciality. He made the All-American team in 1955 and also the Catholic All-American squad. Jim played in the East-West game in 1955 and the College All-Star game the following year.

PERSONAL: Born on October 28, 1934, in Wilkes-Barre, Pa. He is married to the former Catherine Gould. "Kat's" brother, Bob, currently plays for the U. of Dayton eleven. Jim served six months as an Army Pfc. In the off-season he is in the scrap metal business in Philadelphia. Majored in industrial management.

FRAN KEHOE

Tackle			Rookie
Boston University	22 325 6-5		Dorchester, Mass.

PRO: Signed as a free agent on the advice of pro scouts who feel his size makes him a prime prospect as a defensive tackle.

SCHOOL: Regular two-way lineman at Boston University, but was particularly effective on defense.

PERSONAL: Born in Saratoga Springs, N. Y. Was three-sport star in high school, earning letters in football, track and baseball. Spends his summers working as a lifeguard.

PHIL KING

Halfback-Fullback			5th Year
Vanderbilt	26 225 6-4		Nashville, Tenn.

PRO: Drafted No. 1 in 1958 and immediately developed into a versatile and valuable backfield alternate, playing all three positions. As a rookie, gained 316 yards rushing and had 132 yards on pass receptions. Has tremendous drive for a big man and also good open-field speed. Gives Giants three good pass catchers in backfield. Injuries have held up his advancement.

SCHOOL: Vanderbilt captain in 1957. Set all-time school rushing record. Played in Blue-Gray, Senior Bowl and Gator Bowl games. Corner man on defense in college. Threw javelin 195 feet and ran 100-yard dash in 10 seconds flat. Won seven varsity letters.

PERSONAL: Born June 22, 1936. Part Indian. Nicknamed "Chief." Married school sweetheart, Patsy Dean Keel. Holds ROTC commission. Majored in business and history, and works as a sales representative for a Nashville trucking firm in the off-season.

LOU KIROUAC

End			Rookie
Boston College	22 230 6-3		Manchester, N. H.

PRO: Signed as a free agent. Could make the grade as a combination tight end and place-kicker.

SCHOOL: Lou earned three letters in football and one in track at Boston College. He played offensive end and also did most of his team's place-kicking. Won all-New England honors and received honorable mention in the All-American balloting in 1961. Played in the East-West game and the Hula Bowl game. Starred in track and holds the B.C. record for the javelin with a throw of 202 feet. Had his biggest football day against Detroit when he led Boston College to victory with three TDs and three extra points.

PERSONAL: Born on May 17, 1940, in Manchester, N. H. Both his parents are French-Canadians. Lou is single. He hopes to pursue a business career in sales or research. His boyhood idol: Frank Gifford.

GLENFIELD KNIGHT

End | Rookie

Shaw University | 23 195 6-2 | Camden, N. J.

PRO: Knight was drafted on the tenth round in 1960. Pro scouts tabbed him as a real prospect. Was kept on the Giants' inactive squad in 1961, after impressing everyone with his pass-catching during the pre-season schedule.

SCHOOL: Glen won Central IAA all-conference honors in 1958, 1959 and 1960. He captained the Shaw U. eleven in his senior year. His greatest college thrill was catching 12 passes for four TDs against Virginia Union. He won a total of nine varsity letters—three each in football, basketball and track. Was clocked in 9.9 for the hundred and did 6-4 in high jump. Holds the Shaw U. single season receiving record with 36 catches.

PERSONAL: Born on October 16, 1938, in Cape May, N. J. Honor student in college. He worked his way through school by driving a truck. Hopes to someday become a college football coach.

GREG LARSON

Tackle-Center | 2nd Year

Minnesota | 23 245 6-3 | Minneapolis, Minn.

PRO: Larson was the Giants' No. 6 draft choice in 1961. Originally drafted as a center, Greg was moved to tackle as a rookie and won the starting job despite the fact that he hadn't played that position since his high school days. Coach Al Sherman plans to keep him at tackle in 1962 but feels that eventually Larson will become a great pro center.

SCHOOL: Greg was the regular center and linebacker for Minnesota's 1961 Rose Bowl team. He was an AP and UPI All-Conference selection, All-Big Ten and also made the Catholic All-American team. He played in the Rose Bowl, Senior Bowl and College All-Star games.

PERSONAL: Born on November 15, 1939. Single.

DICK LYNCH

Halfback | 5th Year

Notre Dame | 26 205 6-1 | New York City

PRO: Drafted No. 6 by Washington Redskins in 1958 and was regular defensive halfback starter most of the season. Intercepted only two passes for the 'Skins but showed promise of developing into a future defensive standout. Acquired by Giants in Spring trade in 1959, New York giving up a fourth draft choice for the ex-Notre Dame star. Dick won regular spot in Giants' secondary in 1959 and has been there ever since. Led N.F.L. in interceptions in 1961 with nine.

SCHOOL: Won three football letters at Notre Dame and was Irish ground-gaining leader and top defensive back. Best remembered as back who scored touchdown in memorable 7-0 win over Oklahoma which snapped Sooners' 47-game winning streak. Won All-Midwest honors and played in 1958 All-Star Game and North-South classic.

PERSONAL: Born April 29, 1936, in Oceanside, L. I. Has five brothers and two sisters. Attended St. Philip and St. James High in New Jersey. Second lieutenant in ROTC and served six months active duty in 1959. Married to former airline stewardess Roz Culp. Lives in Manhattan and works as sales-promotion man for Shorewood Printing Co. in the off-season.

FRANCIS MARRIOTT

Quarterback | Rookie

Troy State College | 23 195 6-0 | Mobile, Ala.

PRO: Signed as free agent on the advice of Giant scout Peahead Walker in 1961 but spent the season on the Giants' inactive list.

SCHOOL: Won three letters as regular quarterback for Troy State. Made Alabama Collegiate Conference "All" team two years in a row, and also the Paul Williamson All-American eleven. Closed out collegiate career by completing 30 passes for 335 yards and two touchdowns in one game. All-conference pitcher in baseball.

PERSONAL: Born on December 25, 1938. Married to the former Constance Jean Carpenter. In the off-season, Marriott teaches school in hometown of Mobile. Nickname: "Bubba."

CURTIS MIRANDA — Linebacker — Rookie
Florida A&M — 23 235 6-3 — Jacksonville, Fla.

PRO: Miranda was selected on the fifth round of the 1962 draft by the Giants. He played both center and linebacker in college but is earmarked for a defensive role with the pros.

SCHOOL: Won All-American, All-Conference and Player of the Year honors at Florida A&M. Won four football letters, and capped his career with a great game in the All-American Bowl at Washington, D. C. Played center, end and linebacker but prefers defense.

PERSONAL: Born on November 26, 1939, in Jacksonville, Fla. Is married to the former Elizabeth Wyatt, and they have two small sons. Majored in physical education at Florida A&M.

DICK MODZELEWSKI — Tackle — 10th Year
Maryland — 31 260 6-0 — Cleveland, O.

PRO: Drafted No. 2 by Washington Redskins in 1953 and traded to Pittsburgh Steelers in 1955. Giants acquired him in trade in 1956, and he became important defensive cog in championship drive of that year. Seasoned experienced defensive star who gets the job done week after week without fanfare. Highly respected by defensive teammates. Was named to several All-Pro teams in 1961.

SCHOOL: Was virtual unanimous All-American selection for two straight years, 1951 and 1952, at Maryland. Named Outstanding Lineman in nation in 1952 poll of NCAA. Played in 1952 Sugar Bowl.

PERSONAL: Born February 16, 1931. Nicknamed "Little Mo." Brother Ed is "Big Mo," formerly of the Steelers and Browns. Makes his home in Cleveland area, where he is co-owner of a restaurant.

JOE MORRISON — Halfback — 4th Year
Cincinnati — 25 195 6-1 — Lima, O.

PRO: No. 3 draft selection in 1959. Developed into one of the finest rookie finds of the campaign. Gained 747 yards by rushing, receiving and running back kicks as a freshman in NFL. Played both halfback spots when Gifford and Webster were injured. Not overly fast, but runs with power and nifty change of pace. Was club's second best groundgainer in 1960 with 346 yards. Also caught 29 passes for another 367 yards. In 1961, when injuries hit the Giants' secondary, Morrison was switched to defense and finished up as the regular left safety. He intercepted two passes, one of which set up the Giants' only TD in the division-clinching 7-7 tie with Cleveland.

SCHOOL: One of Cincinnati's all-time greats. Set school career scoring record of 128 points. Tied another individual mark at 21 touchdowns in three varsity seasons. Was standout quarterback in soph and junior seasons but switched to halfback in 1958. Led Missouri Valley Conference scorers in 1959 with 56 points and caught 27 passes for 303 yards. Gained 467 yards rushing for a 4.7 yard average. Also starred on defense.

PERSONAL: Born August 21, 1937. Married to former Barbara McDorman. They have three children. Works for steel company in Ohio during off-season.

PETE MORTIMER — Guard — Rookie
Montclair State — 23 240 6-1 — Nutley, N. J.

PRO: Signed as a free agent. Played tackle in college but Giants plan to try him at offensive guard.

SCHOOL: Earned second team NAIA All-American honors while for Montclair State eleven. Won eight major letters, four in football and four in track. Was a shot-putter in track with a top mark of close to 50 feet.

PERSONAL: Born on October 25, 1938, in Chicago, Ill. Single. Majored in business administration.

JIMMY PATTON — Safety — 8th Year
U. of Mississippi — 29 185 5-11 — Belzoni, Miss.

PRO: Drafted on the eighth round in 1955 after impressing pro scouts with his speed and ball-hawking ability. As a rookie, Jim scored touchdowns on a 98-yard kickoff return and a 70-yard punt return in the same game. He was the NFL interception champion in 1958 with 11 steals, and tied for second in 1961 with eight. Plays regular right safety for the Giants and is regarded as dean of pro defensive backs. Has been named to the Pro Bowl for the past four years in a row and also is a perennial All Pro selection on defense. Serves as player-assistant to defensive player—coach Andy Robustelli. (See page 8.)

SCHOOL: Patton is regarded as one of the finest defensive football players ever turned out at Mississippi. Also starred on offense for Ole Miss and once scored 26 points in a single game—against Tulane. Won varsity letters in baseball and track in addition to three football monograms. Was timed in 9.9 for the hundred. Jim played in the Sugar Bowl games of 1953 and 1955. He was captain at Ole Miss in his senior year.

PERSONAL: Born September 29, 1933. Married to the former Adonis Brulgers. They have three children, all boys. In the off-season, Jim is employed as a sales representative for Marlboro cigarettes. He attended E.E. Bass High School in his hometown of Greenville, Miss., and was a star quarterback there. Plays the Clarinet.

DICK PESONEN

Halfback | 3rd Year

Minnesota (Duluth) | 24 190 6-0 | Duluth, Minn.

PRO: Pesonen was signed as a free agent by the Green Bay Packers in 1960 and was acquired by Minnesota the following year when Green Bay put him in the players' pool to help stock the new Viking franchise. The Giants obtained Dick in a 1962 trade for veteran linebacker Cliff Livingston and a high draft choice. He is expected to bolster New York's defensive cornerback position.

SCHOOL: Attended the University of Minnesota for one year and then transferred to the U. of Minnesota Duluth branch, where he won all-conference honors at halfback in 1959 and set six school records. Captained the Duluth eleven and gained Little All-American honorable mention in 1959. Also won two letters in basketball. As an offensive halfback, Dick twice scored four TDs and rushed for 190 yards during the 1959 season.

PERSONAL: Born on June 10, 1938, in Grand Rapids, Minn. Is married to the former Barbara Lee and they reside in Duluth during the off-season. Dick is an avid golfer, and holds the competitive record at the Proctor, Minn., course. He also spends a lot of time fishing and hunting.

JIM PODOLEY

Halfback-End | 6th Year

Central Michigan | 28 205 6-2 | Hyattsville, Md.

PRO: Drafted on fourth round by Redskins in 1957 and traded to the Giants in July of 1961 in same deal that also brought Redskin teammate Joe Walton to New York. Unfortunately, a training camp knee mishap put Jim on the inactive list for the entire 1961 season. But the Giants are expecting big things from him in 1962. In 1957, his rookie year, Podoley was recognized as one of the best halfbacks in NFL. But in 1958 he tore a knee cartilage and was severely handicapped. Underwent knee surgery and has since been used primarily as an end and flanker back, as was Kyle Rote with Giants. Podoley has great breakaway speed, and has scored TDs on plays covering 82, 66, 64, 63 and 48 yards.

COLLEGE: Scored 54 touchdowns in four seasons during fabulous career at Central Michigan. Twenty-one of these TDs were scored from mid-field or beyond, and 10 were jaunts of over 75 yards. Averaged 7.9 yards in 352 carries. Unanimous NAAIA (small college) All-American in 1956; Little All-American three straight years (1954-55-56). One-man track team. Two-time Kansas Relays decathlon champ. Illness deprived him of almost certain berth on 1956 U.S. Olympic team. Track figures include 9.6 for 100, 20.9 for 220, 14.6 for high hurdles, 23.4 for low hurdles and 23 feet 11½ inches in broad jump. Also won letters in basketball.

PERSONAL: Born on September 16, 1933, in Mt. Morris, Mich. Married to Patricia Averill and they have two children, Jimmy Michael, 4½, and Deanna Lynne, 2½. Has two brothers and one sister. Works as insurance agent in off-season.

TED POLISKIN

Hofstra College — Tackle — 22 230 6-2 — Rookie — Passaic, N. J.

PRO: Signed as a free agent on the advice of Hofstra coach Howdy Myers, who feels the boy has fine potentialities as a defensive lineman in the pros.

SCHOOL: Enrolled at the University of Oklahoma in September of 1957, but transferred to Hofstra a year later. Put in three varsity seasons with the Flying Dutchmen and excelled as a defensive operative. Won four varsity letters, three in football and one in lacrosse. Named to the Small College All-East eleven and also the ECAC small college team.

PERSONAL: Born on March 9, 1940, in Passaic, N. J. Single. Attended Passaic High School and played guard. Brother Arnold was a grid star from 1951-55. Works as a stock broker in the off-season. Majored in history and received B.A. degree.

ANDY ROBUSTELLI

Arnold College — End — 35 230 6-1 — 12th Year — Stamford, Conn.

PRO: Drafted No. 19 by Los Angeles Rams in 1951 and played with two Ram championship elevens on West Coast. Traded to the Giants in 1956 for future draft choice. Provided tremendous lift in Giants' title drive that year. Annual selection as All-Pro defensive end. Regarded as smartest defensive end in the business. Is acknowledged field leader of New York defensive team that has been largely responsible for four divisional titles and a world crown in the past six years. Great favorite with Yankee Stadium fans.

SCHOOL: Named to Little All-American teams three straight years, 1948-49-50. All-New England selection in 1949-50. Won three letters in baseball at now-defunct Arnold College.

PERSONAL: Married to former Jean Dora, and they have seven children. Owns sports store in Stamford, Conn., but spends most of his time in other Robustelli enterprises. Very popular as after-dinner speaker. Served two and a half years in Navy during World War II and saw combat in South Pacific theatre. (For more on Andy Robustelli, see Page 8).

TOM SCOTT

Virginia — Linebacker — 32 220 6-2 — 10th Year — Jenkin Town, Pa.

PRO: Obtained in 1959 in pre-season trade with the Philadelphia Eagles, New York giving up offensive end Ken MacAfee and guard Gerry Huth to land the defensive veteran. Eagles originally obtained Scott from Los Angeles Rams. Tom was a long-time member of the Eagles' famed "Suicide Seven." Plays either defensive end or corner linebacker.

SCHOOL: Won All-American honors at Virginia. Was also outstanding lacrosse player, and earned All-American laurels in that sport, too. Captained football team. All-South pick in 1951-52. Won letters in baseball and basketball, too.

PERSONAL: Born September 3, 1930. Married to former Joan Davis. They have five children—Tom, David, Sandy, Mike and Pat. Operates the Abbott Manen Company in the off-season. His hobby is inventing.

DEL SHOFNER

Baylor U. — End — 26 190 6-3 — 6th Year — Center, Tex.

PRO: The Los Angeles Rams had two first-round draft picks in 1956—their own, of course, and one they had received from the Giants in exchange for defensive end Andy Robustelli. The Rams chose Jon Arnett and then, using the Giants' No. 1 selection, they drafted Del Shofner. As a rookie in 1957, Shofner played defensive halfback for the Rams. In 1958, however, he was moved to offensive end and immediately became a sensation by catching 51 passes for a league high of 1,097 yards. Del had another good year in 1959 with 47 receptions but injuries slowed him down the following season and, prior to the 1961 campaign, he was traded to the Giants. Del responded by catching 68 passes for 1,125 yards, tops in the NFL, as the Maramen won the eastern division title. In his brief NFL career, Del has won All Pro designation three times (twice with LA, once with the Giants) and has played in three Pro Bowl games. After his sensational 1961 campaign with the Giants the ex-Baylor star was named unanimously to the AP, UPI, NEA and N.Y. News All Pro elevens. While with the Rams, Del also was a punter, and owns a pro career average of almost 43 yards per kick.

SCHOOL: Del entered Baylor College in Waco, Tex., in September, 1953, and graduated in 1957 after one of the most brilliant football, track and basketball careers in the school's history. All told, he won seven varsity letters—three in football, two in baseball and two in track. In 1956 he led Baylor in rushing, scoring, receiving, punting, pass interceptions, punt and kickoff returns—every department except passing. In addition, his 60 points and 40.7 led the Southwest Conference in these categories. As a running halfback, Del averaged 6.1 yards per carry during his three varsity seasons. A 9.8 sprinter, he ran the anchor leg on the Baylor half-mile relay team which won that event at the Drake, Texas and Kansas relays, and on the 440-yard relay team which tied the world record at 40.2. In basketball, the 6-3 stringbean was a regular forward for three years. Del played in the 1957 Sugar Bowl against Tennessee and was named the MVP. He also played in the 1954 Gator Bowl, the Senior Bowl and the College All Star game. All this was accomplished despite the fact that Shofner suffered severely from anemia and ulcers all during his career at Baylor.

PERSONAL: Born on December 11, 1934, in Center, Tex., and was an all-around athletic star at Center High before winning scholarship to Baylor. Comes from family of seven children, two boys and five girls. German-English descent. Majored in math at Baylor and was above-average student. He is single. Several TV scouts have recently evinced an interest in Del for possible western roles. In the off-season, Shofner plays golf as often as he can and very well, too—usually in the high 70s. Spent six months as Pfc. in Army reserve.

BOB SIMMS — Linebacker — 3rd Year

Rutgers U. — 24 225 6-3 — Charleston, W. Va.

PRO: Simms was the Giants' No. 10 draft choice for the 1960 season. He played offensive end as a rookie but was transferred to linebacker in 1961. Saw limited service in his new role, but was valuable member of the kickoff and punt teams.

SCHOOL: Bob captained the 1959 Rutgers team. He was named to the All-East team and won All-American honorable mention. Was the 10th leading scorer among major college players in 1958 (first among the ends) with 64 points. Holds Rutgers records for most passes and most touchdown passes. Played in Copper Bowl and Optimist Bowl games.

PERSONAL: Born September 3, 1938, in Clendenin, W. Va. Married to the former Donna Jean Gressly and they have one child. Majored in political science and won national academic scholarship award. Was a member of the ROTC at Rutgers and served six-month Army hitch as a 2nd Lieutenant in Spring of 1961. Comes from a real football family. His older brother Gene played at Rutgers from 1954-58; another brother, Steve, starred at Rutgers from 1958-61 and was signed by the Giants; and a third brother, Dick, is still at Rutgers.

STEVE SIMMS — Fullback — Rookie

Rutgers U. — 21 210 6-1 — Charleston, W. Va.

PRO: Steve was signed as a free agent by the Giants on the advice of several pro scouts who saw him in action as Rutgers' heavy-duty ballcarrier. He's not particularly big as fullbacks go but he is very strong and has considerable quickness.

SCHOOL: Simms was the leading ground-gainer for unbeaten Rutgers during the 1961 season. He also starred on defense as a linebacker. Won four varsity letters, three in football and one in track. Was named to the AP All-East eleven in 1961 and also played in the North-South game, the All-American Bowl and the Senior Bowl. Enjoyed his biggest day in college on Oct. 7, 1960, when he rushed for 123 yards on 11 carries against Lafayette.

PERSONAL: Born on October 28, 1940, in Charleston, W. Va. Steve is the younger brother of Bob Simms, the Giants' third-year linebacker from Rutgers. Another brother, Dick, also played football for The Scarlet. Steve, who is single, holds a B.S. degree in Political Science. He is of English, Irish and German descent.

ZEKE SMITH

Auburn | Guard | 25 230 6-2 | 3rd Year | Birmingham, Ala.

PRO: Drafted as a "future" by the Baltimore Colts on the fourth round of NFL player draft in 1959. Made Colts as a rookie in 1960 season and saw limited service as a linebacker and defensive end. Was sent to new Minnesota Vikings franchise in player-stocking deal at end of 1960 season, and subsequently was traded to the Giants as part of the transaction which sent Bob Schnelker, Mel Triplett and Bob Schmidt to the Vikings.

COLLEGE: Called the greatest guard in Auburn history. Was named the nation's outstanding lineman in 1958 and was awarded the Outland Trophy. Also received All-American honors. Specialized in pulling out of the line to lead Auburn running plays. In addition, Zeke starred as Auburn's middle linebacker on defense. Also won letters in track and baseball.

PERSONAL: Born on June 3, 1936, in Walker Spring, Ala. Is married to the former Judy Fuller, and they have two small sons. Zeke sells insurance during the off-season but manages to find time for his favorite hobby—fishing.

JACK STROUD

Tennessee | Guard-Tackle | 34 250 6-1 | 10th Year | Lakewood, O.

PRO: Stroud was the Giants' fourth draft choice in 1951 but served two years in the Army Paratroops Corps as a 1st Lt. and didn't report until the 1953 season. One of the sharpest and widest ranging blockers in professional football. Jack was slowed up by knee injuries in 1957 and 1958 but has enjoyed top years since. He was a vital cog in the 1959 and 1961 eastern title drives. In recent years, Stroud has played both guard and tackle, depending on the team's needs.

SCHOOL: Jack captained the University of Tennessee eleven and won All-American laurels at tackle in 1951. He also played in the Cotton Bowl and the College All-Star game. Jack won eight varsity letters at Tennessee, four in track and four in football. He won six javelin titles and set the school record of 203 feet.

PERSONAL: Born on January 29, 1928, in Fresno, Calif. Is married and has two children, a boy and a girl. Is employed by a printing and lithographing company in Cleveland during the off-season.

JOE TAYLOR

N. Carolina A&T | Halfback | 23 195 6-1 | Rookie | Orlando, Fla.

PRO: Taylor is another of the promising rookies uncovered by Giant scout Peahead Walker. Joe was the club's No. 15 draft choice. He is expected to get a good shot at one of the offensive halfback spots.

SCHOOL: Joe won six varsity letters at North Carolina A&T, three in football and three in track. He was a regular halfback on the A&T eleven for three seasons and led the team in rushing in his final year. Exceptionally fast, Taylor has been timed in 9.7 for the hundred. He's the real breakaway type. Taylor was named to the All-CIAA squad in 1960.

PERSONAL: Born on August 27, 1939, in Miami, Fla. Married to the former Julia E. Baker, and they have a year-old son, Augre Jerod. Joe, who played end at C. W. Carver High School in Miami, hopes to become a coach when his playing days are over.

Y. A. TITTLE — Quarterback — 13th Year

L.S.U. — 35 195 6-0 — Atherton, Calif.

PRO: The Giants engineered one of the most profitable trades in their long history prior to the 1961 season when they sent guard Lou Cordileone to the San Francisco 49ers for quarterback Y. A. Tittle. The 35-year-old passing ace, who spent two years in the old All-America Conference and 11 seasons in the NFL before coming to the Giants, promptly led the Maramen to their 12th eastern division championship as he stepped in to share the quarterbacking chores with Charlie Conerly. "Yat" enjoyed a highly productive campaign. He finished sixth in the league in passing with 163 completions in 285 attempts for 2,272 yards and 17 TDs. All told, Tittle has been playing professional football for 15 years. He was the first draft pick of Baltimore in the AAC and played two seasons (1948-49) in that league. Baltimore moved into the NFL in 1950 and then, in 1951, San Francisco made "Yat" its top pick when the Baltimore franchise was dissolved and its players were acquired by other clubs. In a dozen NFL campaigns, the balding aerial ace has compiled a completion average of 55.4, which is best among all active pro quarterbacks. He was the NFL "Player of the Year" in 1957 when he led San Francisco to a tie for the western title, and won the same honor again last year as he took Giants to eastern championship. Also was named to the NEA, N. Y. News and UPI all pro elevens in 1961. Was starting quarterback for east eleven in the annual Pro Bowl game.

SCHOOL: Tittle entered Louisiana State U. as a 17-year-old freshman tailback in 1944 and became a great passing star when LSU switched to the T formation the following year. "Yat" won All-Southeastern Conference honors in 1946 and 1947. One of his college rivals in those days was Charlie Conerly, then a star at Mississippi. Tittle played in the Blue-Gray game in 1944 and 1945 and in the Cotton Bowl in 1946. His most memorable day as a collegian, however, occurred in 1944, his freshman year, when he completed 15 of 17 passes for 200 yards to beat Tulane single-handedly.

PERSONAL: Born on October 24, 1926, in Marshall, Tex. Graduated from Marshall High School in 1944 and won a scholarship to L.S.U. Has one sister and two brothers, one of whom, Jack, also was a football star. "Yat" is married to the former Minnette DeLooch and they have three children, two boys and a girl. Tittle is a partner in a Palo Alto, Calif., insurance brokerage, and operates a boys' camp in Napa Valley. His chief hobby is playing golf.

MICKEY WALKER — Guard — 2nd Year

Michigan State — 22 230 6-0 — East Detroit, Mich.

PRO: Mickey was signed as a free agent in 1961. He came to camp as a linebacker but couldn't make it there and was subsequently shifted to offense. His play at guard impressed line coach Ed Kolman, and Mickey was retained as a reserve guard behind regulars Jack Stroud and Darrell Dess. Not as big as some pro linemen, Walker nevertheless is a rugged fellow and does a good job blocking.

SCHOOL: Walker was an offensive guard and a part-time linebacker at Michigan State. He played in the 1960 Blue-Gray game.

ALEX WEBSTER

N. Carolina State | Fullback | 31 220 6-3 | 8th Year | E. Brunswick, N. J.

PRO: Webster was the No. 12 draft choice of the Washington Redskins in 1953 but was cut from the squad in training camp. He signed as a free agent with Montreal and was the top halfback in Canadian football for the next two years. Joined the Giants in 1955 and teamed with Frank Gifford to form one of the most potent halfback combinations in pro ball. Alex, who has gained over four yards a carry for the Giants during his seven years in the N.F.L., enjoyed his greatest season in 1961. He gained 928 yards on 196 tries, finishing third in the league in ball-carrying. He also moved up in the all-time Giant categories and now needs only 77 yards to surpass Gifford as the club's champion ground-gainer. Webster was switched to fullback in 1961, and was valuable both as a blocker and a pass receiver.

SCHOOL: Played offensive halfback and defensive safety for North Carolina State. Twice won designation to the All-Southern Conference first team. Won six major letters, three in football and three in baseball. Was a tailback at Kearny High School in New Jersey and made the All-State eleven two years in a row.

PERSONAL: Born April 19, 1931, in Kearny, N. J. Scotch descent. Was a Giant fan as a youngster and often watched team play from seat in Polo Grounds bleachers. Married to the former Louise Eggers and they have two children. Alex' hobby is bowling, and he's a good one with an average of close to 190. Brother Jimmy Webster had try-out with Giants in 1960 and later played in Canada. In off-season, Alex is employed as a promotion man for Ballantine beer.

RAY WIETECHA

Northwestern | Center | 33 225 6-1 | 10th Year | Cranford, N. J.

PRO: Drafted No. 12 as a "future" pick in 1950. Joined the Giants for 1953 season after a fling at minor league baseball in Washington Senators' farm system. As a rookie, he played center, linebacker, defensive halfback and end. Named to the All-Pro team on five occasions. Rated one of the best offensive line blockers in pro ball. Quick and strong. Real iron man—hasn't missed a minute of offensive play because of an injury in eight years! Has played in 118 straight games, and has been a starter in 106 consecutive league games.

SCHOOL: Won All-Big Ten honors as center at Northwestern. Also starred on defense for Wildcats. Won three varsity letters in football and three in baseball.

PERSONAL: Born November 4, 1929. Served as officer in Marine Corps. Married. He and wife Joan have four children, Billy, Barbara, Donna and Darren.

BILL WINTER

Linebacker — Rookie

St. Olaf — 22 220 6-3 — Spring Valley, Minn.

PRO: Winter was the Giants' 18th draft choice in 1962. Played fullback and linebacker in college, but pros tab him as strictly a defensive possibility.

SCHOOL: Bill earned eight major letters at little St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minn., starring in football, baseball and basketball. Captained the St. Olaf eleven and was a durable 60-minute player throughout his career. Little All-American.

PERSONAL: Born on January 28, 1940, in Milbank, S. Dakota. Single. Majored in English at St. Olaf but has not yet decided on a career. Plays the guitar.

JOHN YACCINO

Halfback — Rookie

U. of Pittsburgh — 22 195 6-0 — Hazleton, Pa.

PRO: Signed as a free agent on the recommendation of former Scranton U. coach Pete Carlesimo, who notified the Giants that John was anxious for a try at pro ball.

SCHOOL: John was a regular halfback for the Pitt Panthers from 1958 through 1961. His steady play went unnoticed for the most part, but in the 1961 game with Syracuse he was voted the Outstanding Back by members of the press. Has good speed and is a rugged, durable back.

PERSONAL: Born on June 27, 1940, in Hazleton, Pa., where the Yaccino clan still resides. Was a star halfback at Hazleton High School and won a scholarship to the U. of Pittsburgh, where he majored in English. Plans to finish his studies in the off-season and then enter teaching and coaching. He is single. His hobby is chess.
